It shall be understood that while every effort is made to protect the Contestant's model(s), the Contestant recognizes that accidents, criminal behavior, and acts of God may result in damage to a model. The Contestant hereby releases the Northshore Scale Modelers, it's officers, it's members, the sponsors, the host facility and it's operators from any liability whatsoever in the event of damage and/or destruction of any models, or any other injury of any kind. The Contestant also understands and agrees that the models described above were constructed solely by the Contestant and without the help of any other individual. Models built by more than one individual are ineligible and are subject to disqualification. The Contestant has read and understands the IPMS rules and acknowledges this fact by his/her signature below
